

San Roman 2017

D.O. Toro

Grapes: 100% Tinta de Toro

94+
points

VIEW FROM
THE CELLAR

“[The] 2017... offers up a superb bouquet of cassis, black cherries, sweet new leather, cigar smoke, a nice touch of tempranillo spice tones and a deft framing of nutty new oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, focused and complex, with an excellent core of fruit, impressive balance and grip, ripe, well-integrated tannins and a very long, classy finish. There is a wisp of backend heat here, but this is Toro after all... the wine is really very well balanced... It will age beautifully. 2030-2080.”

John Gilman – Issue #91 January/February 2021

Imported by Grapes of Spain

Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2021

San Roman 2017

D.O. Toro

Grapes: 100% Tinta de Toro

94+
points

VIEW FROM
THE CELLAR

“[The] 2017... offers up a superb bouquet of cassis, black cherries, sweet new leather, cigar smoke, a nice touch of tempranillo spice tones and a deft framing of nutty new oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, focused and complex, with an excellent core of fruit, impressive balance and grip, ripe, well-integrated tannins and a very long, classy finish. There is a wisp of backend heat here, but this is Toro after all... the wine is really very well balanced... It will age beautifully. 2030-2080.”

John Gilman – Issue #91 January/February 2021

Imported by Grapes of Spain

Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2021

San Roman 2017

D.O. Toro

Grapes: 100% Tinta de Toro

94+
points

VIEW FROM
THE CELLAR

“[The] 2017... offers up a superb bouquet of cassis, black cherries, sweet new leather, cigar smoke, a nice touch of tempranillo spice tones and a deft framing of nutty new oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, focused and complex, with an excellent core of fruit, impressive balance and grip, ripe, well-integrated tannins and a very long, classy finish. There is a wisp of backend heat here, but this is Toro after all... the wine is really very well balanced... It will age beautifully. 2030-2080.”

John Gilman – Issue #91 January/February 2021

Imported by Grapes of Spain

Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2021

San Roman 2017

D.O. Toro

Grapes: 100% Tinta de Toro

94+
points

VIEW FROM
THE CELLAR

“[The] 2017... offers up a superb bouquet of cassis, black cherries, sweet new leather, cigar smoke, a nice touch of tempranillo spice tones and a deft framing of nutty new oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, focused and complex, with an excellent core of fruit, impressive balance and grip, ripe, well-integrated tannins and a very long, classy finish. There is a wisp of backend heat here, but this is Toro after all... the wine is really very well balanced... It will age beautifully. 2030-2080.”

John Gilman – Issue #91 January/February 2021

Imported by Grapes of Spain

Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2021

San Roman 2017

D.O. Toro

Grapes: 100% Tinta de Toro

94+
points

VIEW FROM
THE CELLAR

“[The] 2017... offers up a superb bouquet of cassis, black cherries, sweet new leather, cigar smoke, a nice touch of tempranillo spice tones and a deft framing of nutty new oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, focused and complex, with an excellent core of fruit, impressive balance and grip, ripe, well-integrated tannins and a very long, classy finish. There is a wisp of backend heat here, but this is Toro after all... the wine is really very well balanced... It will age beautifully. 2030-2080.”

John Gilman – Issue #91 January/February 2021

Imported by Grapes of Spain

Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2021

San Roman 2017

D.O. Toro

Grapes: 100% Tinta de Toro

94+
points

VIEW FROM
THE CELLAR

“[The] 2017... offers up a superb bouquet of cassis, black cherries, sweet new leather, cigar smoke, a nice touch of tempranillo spice tones and a deft framing of nutty new oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, focused and complex, with an excellent core of fruit, impressive balance and grip, ripe, well-integrated tannins and a very long, classy finish. There is a wisp of backend heat here, but this is Toro after all... the wine is really very well balanced... It will age beautifully. 2030-2080.”

John Gilman – Issue #91 January/February 2021

Imported by Grapes of Spain

Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2021