

Arrocal Passion 2018 (Red Wine)

Bodegas Arrocal is located in Gumiel de Mercado a small village in the “golden triangle” of Ribera del Duero. The vineyards were planted by the Moises Calvo and Rosa Arroyo and the winery produced its first wine in 2001. A new winery was built and utilized for the 2005 vintage. The new winery moves all grapes using gravity to minimize rough handling and to help obtain a wine with a silky mouthfeel. Fruit expression is maximized through temperature-controlled fermentations, keeping maceration times short and gentle pressing in low capacity basket presses.

Reviews:

“The 2018 Passion “Crianza” from Bodegas Arrocal hails all from a single vineyard, perched at six hundred and fifty meters above sea level and farmed organically. The Tempranillo vines here are thirty years of age, the wine is fermented with indigenous yeasts and aged for one year in a combination of seventy percent French casks and thirty percent American oak barrels. One-third of the casks are renewed each vintage. The bouquet wafts from the glass in a sophisticated blend of plums, black cherries, cigar smoke, a lovely base of soil tones and a very well done framing of nutty new oak. On the palate the wine is pure, full-bodied and quite elegant in profile, with a lovely core of fruit, good soil signature, well-integrated tannins and a long, nascently complex and very nicely balanced finish. This is listed at 14.5 percent octane and shows just a whisper of backend heat, but carries its alcohol well and will age long and gracefully. It needs a bit of time to integrate its oak component more completely, but will do so seamlessly with some bottle age. Good juice. 2028-2055.”
