Reviews:

“The 2018 Cabernet Sauvignon from Casa l'Angel hails from a single vineyard parcel called Finca El Poblet, which sits at an elevation of six hundred meters above sea level. The grapes are picked by hand and the wine is given a short, three month elevage in used French barrels prior to bottling. It offers up a ripe and stylish bouquet of red and black cherries, cigar smoke, a good base of soil and a bit of tobacco leaf in the upper register. On the palate the wine is bright, full-bodied and juicy at the core, with good focus and grip, moderate tannins and a long, tasty finish. This is not the most complex example of cabernet sauvignon one can find, but it hits all the right notes and at $14 a bottle here in the US, it is a fine value. 2020-2035.”
