

Las Colinas del Ebro Garnacha Blanca 2018 (White Wine)

Bodegas Abanico began in the autumn of 2006 when husband and wife Rafael de Haan and Nuria Altes decided to make their own wine in Terra Alta. They thought they could create something special from the old vine Garnacha, both red and white. The resulting wine Las Colinas del Ebro, the hills of the Ebro (famous river in northern Spain), has since developed into a successful brand in its own right.

Reviews:

“The 2018 Las Colinas del Ebro Garnatxa Blanca from Bodegas Abanico seems just a touch riper in its panoply of aromatics in comparison to the 2017 version, though the new vintage comes in listed at 13.5 percent again. The bouquet is ripe and effusive, offering up scents of pineapple coulis, wild fennel, salty soil tones and a topnote of dried flowers. On the palate the wine is deep, ripe and full-bodied, with a good core, a nice foundation of soil tones, sound acids and good length and grip on the bouncy and nicely buxom finish. This is quite tasty, and my comments about last year’s version not being overly complex, but hitting all the right notes, is equally true of this very good 2018. Good juice. 2020-2025.” 88 points View from the Cellar; Issue # 85 - January/February 2020
