“The 2017 Descarte... delivers a superb nose of black cherries, a hint of sultana raisin, leather, roasted venison, dark chocolate, woodsmoke, lovely spice tones and cedar. On the palate the wine is deep... with a good core, fine soil signature and grip, firm, chewy tannins and a long, complex finish. There is just a bit of heat poking out here on the backend, but this is well-balanced for a Toro in this day and age. 2026-2055.”
