Reviews:

“The 2016 Verdejo “Egeo” from Isaac Fernandez is produced from sixty year-old vines planted on sandy clay soils. The wine is lovely, wafting from the glass in a classic bouquet of Granny Smith apple, lime peel, green olive, salty soil tones and a top note of dried flowers. On the palate the wine is crisp, medium-full and zesty, with fine focus and grip, a lovely core, good backend mineral drive and a long, complex and succulent finish. Just a lovely bottle of Verdejo and a superb value! 2018-2022.
