

Legado del Moncayo

Garnacha Rosado 2020

D.O. Campo de Borja
Grapes: 100% Garnacha

91points

winereviewonline.com

“This is among the best rosé wines I’ve had the pleasure to taste this year. It is admirably fresh, with a tart edge reminiscent of pie cherries, yet there’s nothing sour about it. Although it is truly a dry wine, its vivid fruit lets it seem generous, but not in an obvious or “grapey” way. All the flavors and structural elements tail off evenly in the finish — which is a hallmark of very well-made rosé...”

Michael Franz - April 6, 2021

Imported by Grapes of Spain
Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2021

Legado del Moncayo

Garnacha Rosado 2020

D.O. Campo de Borja
Grapes: 100% Garnacha

91points

winereviewonline.com

“This is among the best rosé wines I’ve had the pleasure to taste this year. It is admirably fresh, with a tart edge reminiscent of pie cherries, yet there’s nothing sour about it. Although it is truly a dry wine, its vivid fruit lets it seem generous, but not in an obvious or “grapey” way. All the flavors and structural elements tail off evenly in the finish — which is a hallmark of very well-made rosé...”

Michael Franz - April 6, 2021

Imported by Grapes of Spain
Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2021

Legado del Moncayo

Garnacha Rosado 2020

D.O. Campo de Borja
Grapes: 100% Garnacha

91points

winereviewonline.com

“This is among the best rosé wines I’ve had the pleasure to taste this year. It is admirably fresh, with a tart edge reminiscent of pie cherries, yet there’s nothing sour about it. Although it is truly a dry wine, its vivid fruit lets it seem generous, but not in an obvious or “grapey” way. All the flavors and structural elements tail off evenly in the finish — which is a hallmark of very well-made rosé...”

Michael Franz - April 6, 2021

Imported by Grapes of Spain
Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2021

Legado del Moncayo

Garnacha Rosado 2020

D.O. Campo de Borja
Grapes: 100% Garnacha

91points

winereviewonline.com

“This is among the best rosé wines I’ve had the pleasure to taste this year. It is admirably fresh, with a tart edge reminiscent of pie cherries, yet there’s nothing sour about it. Although it is truly a dry wine, its vivid fruit lets it seem generous, but not in an obvious or “grapey” way. All the flavors and structural elements tail off evenly in the finish — which is a hallmark of very well-made rosé...”

Michael Franz - April 6, 2021

Imported by Grapes of Spain
Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2021

Legado del Moncayo

Garnacha Rosado 2020

D.O. Campo de Borja
Grapes: 100% Garnacha

91points

winereviewonline.com

“This is among the best rosé wines I’ve had the pleasure to taste this year. It is admirably fresh, with a tart edge reminiscent of pie cherries, yet there’s nothing sour about it. Although it is truly a dry wine, its vivid fruit lets it seem generous, but not in an obvious or “grapey” way. All the flavors and structural elements tail off evenly in the finish — which is a hallmark of very well-made rosé...”

Michael Franz - April 6, 2021

Imported by Grapes of Spain
Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2021

Legado del Moncayo

Garnacha Rosado 2020

D.O. Campo de Borja
Grapes: 100% Garnacha

91points

winereviewonline.com

“This is among the best rosé wines I’ve had the pleasure to taste this year. It is admirably fresh, with a tart edge reminiscent of pie cherries, yet there’s nothing sour about it. Although it is truly a dry wine, its vivid fruit lets it seem generous, but not in an obvious or “grapey” way. All the flavors and structural elements tail off evenly in the finish — which is a hallmark of very well-made rosé...”

Michael Franz - April 6, 2021

Imported by Grapes of Spain
Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2021