“The Subirats family own 49 acres of vines in Sant Sadurní d’Anoia, below the castle that bears the family name. Winemaker Damia Deas i Gual buys in fruit from another 250 for the winery’s Cavas, including this blend of trepat with 10 percent pinot noir. It’s a rich wine with notes of Cara Cara oranges, wild mushrooms and rooty scents, a lovely pink for roast quail.”
