

Evolet 2013

Winery: Pago El Almendro

Region: D.O.P. Vino de Calidad de Valtiendas

Grapes: 100% Tempranillo

Winery: This wine comes from the Quality Wine Region of Valtiendas. The region is in the Northeast of the province of Segovia abutting its more famous neighbor, Ribera del Duero. A key difference versus Ribera del Duero is the altitude of the vineyards, which are much higher here, 900+ meters. Currently there are 5 recognized Bodegas in the region, with 100 hectares under cultivation.

Wine: This is only the second vintage of Evolet. This wine is produced from 20 year old Tempranillo vines planted in very chalky soils at 900 meters above sea level. Grapes were hand harvested and fermented in stainless steel tank. The wine was then aged in 500 L oak barrels for 6 months.

Reviews: “Brilliant ruby. Aromas of fresh red and dark berries are complicated by suggestions of black pepper and lavender. Chewy and focused on the palate, offering vibrant black raspberry, bitter cherry and licorice flavors that put on weight and become sweeter with air. Closes floral and taut, with silky tannins coming in late and adding grip.”

“They harvested very late in 2013, into October, but as the season was late anyway, the 2013 Evolet managed to keep good freshness. It’s a fresh and fruit driven Tempranillo, with classical aromas of cherries, raspberries and licorice. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannins and very good acidity. This is an easy to drink Tempranillo. The wine fermented in stainless steel and matured in third-use French barriques for six months. 8,500 bottles produced.”
