Reviews:

“The 2017 Finca La Mata is a fine follow-up to the lovely 2016 version. These old vines have come in at fourteen percent octane in this vintage and offer up a deep and nascently complex bouquet of black cherries, plums, cigar wrapper, lovely soil tones, gentle spice elements and a judicious framing of new oak (one-third of the casks are new each year). On the palate the wine is pure, full-bodied and rock solid at the core, with lovely fruit tones, good soil signature, buried, ripe tannins and excellent length and grip on the youthfully complex finish. This is a serious wine and deserves time in the cellar to blossom into its secondary layers of complexity, but for those a bit impatient, it is already pretty easy to drink! 2025-2055+.”

“With rich flavors of red and black fruits, a little spice, and a hint of licorice in the background, this lively red wine from Spain was aged for eight months in a combination of 80% French and 20% American oak. The fruit (100% Tempranillo, also known as Tinta del Pais) comes from vines more than half a century old. 2017 was a superior vintage for Finca la Mata.” 90 Points Wine Review Online; Michael Franz - February 3, 2020

“Brilliant ruby-red. Spice-tinged black raspberry and cherry on the nose, along with a subtle vanilla nuance and a hint of smokiness. Juicy cherry, cassis and mocha flavors are given a spicy edge by a jolt of white pepper. Becomes sweeter and livelier with air and finishes supple and long, with even tannins and lingering red fruit character. Produced from 85-year-old vines and aged in 80% French and 20% American oak, a third of it new. 2022 – 2029.”
