“This excellent producer has turned in a wonderful performance with this wine... a rich and generous rendition that displays the warmth of the growing season while still retaining the freshness that makes old vine... Mencía so exciting. Deeply pigmented and medium-plus in body... some lovely spice notes showing at this point, accenting the black cherry and red berry fruit (plus the lightest touch of wood tannin providing just a bit of extra grip in the finish). Sip after sip, it shows virtually perfect balance between ripe fruit and bright acidity...”
