"...Godello is often medium-bodied and leaning toward full (as in this bottling from Luna Beberide), with very satisfying richness on the palate and an almost creamy texture. Thankfully, the wine's acidity is up to the task of keeping the wine fresh rather than ponderous or heavy, and it finishes with clarity despite an enduring sense of ripeness. The fruit recalls ripe pears and baked apples, with an underlying streak of saline minerality that contributes very significantly to the wine's layered character and complexity..."
