

Legado del Moncayo Garnacha Blanca 2023 (White Wine)

Isaac Fernández Selección is a unique collaborative venture between two individuals – Isaac Fernandez one of Spain’s most acclaimed winemakers and Aurelio Cabestrero whose vision and commitment helped bring Spanish wines to the forefront in the United States. They work at rediscovering forgotten regions of superior terroir and maximizing the potential from old vines of indigenous grape varieties in a number of regions.

2013 was the first vintage of Legado del Moncayo, a subtly oaked, old vine Garnacha from Campo de Borja. In 2014 they added an un-oaked Garnacha made from younger vines; a delicious wine priced to be enjoyed every day. In 2015 they expanded the line with a unique expression of Garnacha Blanca, an exceedingly rare grape in the area. Finally in 2016, they produced their first dry Muscat, a highly aromatic, white wine that pairs beautifully with intensely flavored foods.

Reviews:

“2023 Legado Del Moncayo Garnacha Blanca- The 2023 Legado Del Moncayo Garnacha Blanca comes from 50 year old estate vines set on granite and sandy loam soils. This is salty and fresh with great texture and loaded with bright green apple, kiwi and cantaloupe flavors. Enjoy now and over the next few years. Drink 2024-2030”

“The Garnacha Blanca vines of Legado del Moncayo are planted at high elevation on the flanks of the Moncayo Mountain, with very stony soils and the wine stays nicely fresh and vibrant as a result. The 2023 version comes in at 13.5 percent octane and offers up bright and complex bouquet of pear, apple, a touch of coriander seed, lovely soil tones, wild fennel and a topnote of dried flowers. On the palate the wine is focused, full-bodied, complex and zesty, with a lovely core of fruit, good mineral undertow, a fine spine of acidity and a long, well balanced and classy finish. This is very good wine and a great value! 2024-2028...”
