

Legado del Moncayo Garnacha Blanca 2021 (white wine)

Isaac Fernández Selección is a unique collaborative venture between two individuals – Isaac Fernandez one of Spain’s most acclaimed winemakers and Aurelio Cabestrero whose vision and commitment helped bring Spanish wines to the forefront in the United States. They work at rediscovering forgotten regions of superior terroir and maximizing the potential from old vines of indigenous grape varieties in a number of regions.

2013 was the first vintage of Legado del Moncayo, a subtly oaked, old vine Garnacha from Campo de Borja. In 2014 they added an un-oaked Garnacha made from younger vines; a delicious wine priced to be enjoyed every day. In 2015 they expanded the line with a unique expression of Garnacha Blanca, an exceedingly rare grape in the area. Finally in 2016, they produced their first dry Muscat, a highly aromatic, white wine that pairs beautifully with intensely flavored foods.

Reviews:

“The white garnacha bottling from Legado del Moncayo hails from the same volcanic, poor soils as the red wines from this fine estate. The wine comes in this year at 13.5 percent alcohol and delivers a bright bouquet of peach, melon, citrus blossoms, stony soil tones and a topnote of white lilies. On the palate the wine is vibrant, full-bodied and focused, with a fine core of fruit, good soil signature, sound framing acids and a long, youthfully complex finish. This is a fine example of Garnacha Blanca and a very good value. 2022-2027.”
