

Legado del Moncayo Garnacha Rosado 2021 (Rose wine)

Isaac Fernandez Seleccion is a unique collaborative venture between two individuals – Isaac Fernandez one of Spain’s most acclaimed winemakers and Aurelio Cabestrero whose vision and commitment helped bring Spanish wines to the forefront in the United States. They work at rediscovering forgotten regions of superior terroir and maximizing the potential from old vines of indigenous grape varieties in a number of regions.

2013 was the first vintage of Legado del Moncayo, a subtly oaked, old vine Garnacha from Campo de Borja. This wine compliments their existing offering from Calatayud as it offers more floral, red fruit aromas and lighter weight. In 2014 they added an unoaked wine made from younger vines; a delicious wine priced to be enjoyed every day. In 2015 they expanded the line again with a unique expression of Garnacha Blanca, an exceedingly rare grape in the area. Finally, in 2016, they produced their first dry Muscat, a highly aromatic, white wine that pairs beautifully with intensely flavored foods.

Reviews:

“The 2021 Rosado from Legado del Moncayo is composed entirely from the estate’s fine Garnacha holdings. The wine is a very pretty salmon color and offers up a vibrant nose of tangerine, melon, salty soil tones, dried flowers and a bit of orange peel in the upper register. On the palate the wine is bright, full-bodied and nicely succulent at the core, with good acids and grip and a long, bouncy finish that is just a touch pinched by its closure, so decant the wine prior to serving to let it stretch out a bit. A good bottle. 2021-2025.”
