Reviews:

"All of the red Viña Otano wines show excellent continuity in style despite being sourced from different vintages and, in the case of the lovely Graciano, even different grape varieties, which is certainly indicative of skillful winemaking. This is soft, open and modestly wooded but still recognizably regional in character, yet not dogmatically traditional. There's more evident spice and toast notes from oak than in the Reserva, as is appropriate at the Gran Reserva level, yet the balance with fruit is just right... the oak shows itself aromatically, but then seems to "step aside" to let the fruit take center stage on the palate, but then returns to take a bow as the wine finishes, firming up the aftertaste without foreshortening it... the flavors are perfectly clean, with no hint of the oxidation or brett than can mar Gran Reservas from some other Rioja bodegas. This is delicious already, and will only get better for the next decade."

"Vivid ruby. A highly perfumed bouquet evokes spice-accented red and dark berries, cherry preserves, vanilla, pungent flowers and pipe tobacco. Seamless and lively on the palate, offering vibrant black raspberry, bitter cherry and mocha flavors braced by a core of juicy acidity. Displays impressive finishing energy, discreet tannins and a lingering spicecake note... 2023 – 2032" 93 points Vinous; Josh Reynolds – April 2021

"The 2014 'Gran Reserva' is a stunning wine... that is already singing at the six year mark. Rich layers of rose petals line the nose alongside the core of orange zest and bright red fruits that all harmonize on the nose. The altar shows great freshness with a light dusting of salinity that melds in the core of red and dark fruits, with blood orange zest, iodine and charcuterie tones. Showing a good combination of weight and length, the 2014 'Gran Reserva' will provide drinking enjoyment for at least another fifteen years..." 93 points Washington Wine Blog; Dr. Owen J. "[The] 2014 Gran Reserva is a pretty ripe wine at 14.5 percent octane... delivering a fine, youthful nose of cherries, raspberries, clove-like spices, cigar wrapper, a fine base of soil and a nice touch of oak, with both coconutty tones from American wood and cedar from French wood in evidence. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied... with a fine core of fruit, good soil signature, ripe, moderate tannins and impressive length and grip on the complex and ever so slightly warm finish. I would love to see this wine a half point lower in octane, but it is beautifully made and even at 14.5 percent, it is a really fine example of Rioja!..."
