"... It delivers a deep and complex bouquet of dark berries, coffee bean, Rioja spice tones, a fine base of soil, cigar smoke and a nice mix of oak influences from the casks' two countries of origin. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and very nicely balanced for its octane level, with the start of a velvety palate impression on the attack, a fine core of black fruit, lovely soil undertow and grip, buried tannins and fine focus on the long, complex and classy finish..."
