Reviews:

“The profile of the 2019 Garmón is quite classical Ribera del Duero, with good ripeness, Tempranillo typicity and generous oak, delivering wines of high regularity and a recognizable profile for the public. It has smoky notes of bacon and spices, black fruit, good ripeness, 14.5% alcohol and a juicy and creamy mouthfeel with ripe tannins and an oaky finish. It matured in 225-liter French oak barrels for 20 months. 49,504 bottles produced. It was bottled in September 2021 Drink 2024-2029.” 93 points The Wine Advocate; Luis Gutierrez - Issue January 2023

“This beautiful 2019 Ribera del Duero offers dusty soils on the nose alongside wild blackberry and shades of toasty oak. The palate is nicely concentrated, with good freshness and a beautiful core of red and dark fruits. With more air citrus zest and chocolate flavors help mold this beautiful new wine that has at least another decade of life to go. Drink 2023-2033-”

“The 2019 Garmón Tinto is a big boy, coming in listed at 14.5 percent octane and offering up a deep and promising bouquet of cassis, black cherries, cigar ash, dark chocolate, a bit of tobacco leaf and cedary new oak. On the palate the wine is full-bodied, plush and shows off excellent mid-palate depth, with ripe, firm tannins, good focus and grip and a long, balanced and still quite youthful finish. This is made from tempranillo vines that range from thirty to more than one hundred years of age. The wine is still very primary, but carries its ripeness very nicely and will be a fine bottle once it is ready to drink. 2033-2075+.”
